Title 1: Some kids will be graduating after the updated DRA scores! Fellowship Chapel will have volunteers come and play math games with kids struggling with math.

Old Business: Talent show was a huge success. All of the kids did amazing jobs!! If you attended and have any feedback please let the PTO know so we can have a even more successful talent show next year. We will also be looking for more help running it next year we will need help with the sound system and running the show.

Soup for Super Bowl went very well, the Boy Scouts were very helpful in sorting and delivering all 486 lbs of food to Gleaners.

The Red Box of Warmth collected 120 pieces that were taken to the warren goodfellows!! We will play this for earlier next year due to the stores not having much left in stock.

New Business:

A. Reading Month- This year we will be doing an Olympic theme the kids will be receiving their reading logs when we get back from break. March 1st will be the opening ceremonies assembly. The 11th-17th will be the book fair each child will receive a free book up to a $5 value. The 2nd will be our annual book swap the kids can bring in up to 3 gently used books and pick 3 new to them books. We will be asking for volunteers to help set up, run, and clean up the book swap. Thursday the 29th is a half day and will be the closing ceremonies and Chuck E Cheese visit and fundraiser. More details to come as we iron out some last minute details.

B. Yankee Candle- we will be doing the Yankee Candle fundraiser again this year kids will be going home with the packets on March 9th and will be due back by March 23rd. Wilde PTO earns 38% of sales! And all the items will be in before mothers day.

C. Great Skate- We will be doing another Great Skate night on April 16th from 6-8pm tickets will be $6.

Principal's Report: There have been many icy spots in the parking lot or on the sidewalks around the school please notify the office so we can take care of them and no one gets hurt. All Valentines parties were moved to the half day friday so the Wednesday could be devoted to a full day of learning.

We are planning to do the Jimmy Johns night again this year we will have more details soon.

Thank you to all the parents and family members who donated food for the soup to super bowl and the hats and gloves for the warren goodfellows. And pop tabs for the Ronald Mcdonalds House! Plus all those who send in and those who cut and count the Box Tops and The moms that make the popcorn and the parents who purchase!! Thank you everyone.

Adjournment- 9:52am. Motion to Adjourn Natalie, 2nd Sarah.
