Correspondence: Thank you's from: Latchkey for jump ropes and skip its, Blessings in a Backpack, and Mrs. Drew.

Title 1: Mr. Guinn. Students have been reassessed. Some have moved out of Title 1 while others have moved in. Title 1 is for grades 1 & 2 in Language Arts, lowest 20% based on DRA meet with Mrs. Sanom.

Old Business:

*Box Tops - Box Top collection brought in around $2,200.

*December Event - Wilde Grinchmas is coming along. It is a free family event. There are 20 volunteers working to make it all come together. There will be craft stations, food stations, photo booth, face painting, raffle, letters to Santa, Stripes, the Grinch cartoon playing and a few opportunities to give back. Pajama Program donation, Giving for Greyson and Garden Club craft.

New Business:

A. MJR - December 18th all school trip to MJR to see Penguins of Madagascar, $11 per student. The first group of buses leave school at 9am with grades 3-5. The second group, grades K-2, will be picked up after those students are dropped off. They will return in time for lunch.

B. Housekeeping:

A. Budget - Stick to it! If you go over, you must state it and give explanations in order to get reimbursement.

B. Requests - You must stick to the wording of the motion that was made.

Example: if you request to buy 2 of something, you can only buy 2 not 3.

- C. Cost Events - If you charge money for events, please give Mr. Guinn extra tickets or wristbands for families that may not be able to attend because of finances.
- D. Represent - If you're not part of the solution, you're part of the problem. If you hear talk about PTO, do your best to invite people to be a part, don't complain along with them or be upset about their non-involvement.
- E. Questions - Talk to Mr. Quinn if you have any questions. The door is always open.

C. Amp Night - Because of new responsibilities, Laura Nielsen has asked for someone to chair AMP night. It is a February event. She will assist if needed.

D. Parking Lot - Vicki Brostinianc has offered to get vests for parking lot volunteers.

Principal's Report: Mr. Guinn, *Confusion surrounding Red Wings games needs to be cleared up. The ticket sales for January 20th game and the game the service squad are going to are two separate events. The locker room event is a different day as well. *The December PTO meeting will be canceled.

Adjournment: 7:38pm
